

Right to Compensation

Right to take action for compensation if the individual suffers damage by any contravention of the Act by data controllers

Any individual who believes they have suffered who has damage as a result of an infringement of the requirements of the Act may be entitled to receive compensation from Cheshire Fire and Rescue Service or the processor where the Cheshire Fire and Rescue Service or processor is responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.

Damage includes financial loss, distress and other adverse effects, whether or not material.

How to make a claim

As part of the Bluelight Collaboration between Cheshire Fire and Rescue Service and Cheshire Constabulary, the legal department provides its services to the joint Fire and Police corporate services.

Any claim for compensation arising from this provision may be sent to:

Legal Services Office,
Cheshire Constabulary HQ,
Clemonds Hey,
Oakmere Road,
Winsford,
CW7 2UA