

Right to Object

In limited circumstances, you have the right to object to the use of your personal information. This right only applies to general processing and not where the Service is processing for law enforcement purposes.

The right also only applies to the following situations:

- Where the legal basis for the processing is based on 'legitimate interests' or the 'performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority' (including profiling);
- Direct marketing (including profiling);
- Processing for purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics

How to make a request to object

We need to be satisfied that you are who you say you are. You must include identification which shows your name, address and date of birth (e.g. Driving Licence, Passport, Medical Card, Birth/Adoption Certificate, Bank Statement or Utility Bill).

It is advised that you supply photocopies of original documents – the Service cannot be held accountable for original documents lost in the post.

Requests should be sent to the Information Compliance Manager/Data Protection Officer: Data.Protection@cheshirefire.gov.uk

If you require any assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us via the email above or telephone: 01606 868808.

Please note: once we have received your request, the process to provide you with information can take up to one month. One month is the statutory deadline defined by the Data Protection Act 2018.
